

Lori's Garden

Lori and her friends are planting in her garden. The flower bed will be new. Lori picked out all of the flowers. She drew a picture for her work crew. She knew that her friends would like to see her picture. It showed where to plant each kind of flower. Lori was going to plant mostly seeds. She put her crew to work. One friend dug holes, and another threw seeds into them. A third friend covered the seeds with dirt. Lori watered the plants on days when there was no morning dew. The plants grew and grew.
