

The Williams Sisters

Have you heard of the Williams sisters? Venus is a famous tennis player. Her sister is Serena. She's a tennis player too. They played together as kids. I didn't know about them until I started playing tennis. My teacher told me about them. She's amazed that they have both been ranked number one in the world.

Venus is a great tennis player. She's very strong. She hits the ball very hard. I won't ever be able to play as well as her. But, my teacher and I are studying her swing. We're working on her backhand. I'll try it out in my match next week. Venus didn't stop with tennis. She went to school for fashion too.

Serena is also a great tennis player. She is like her sister. She likes fashion too. They make their own clothes. They've worn them on the court. I'm sure you'll be seeing more of the Williams sisters in the future.
