

1. Frog Facts

A frog is an animal. Its skin is slick. It can swim and it can travel on land. If it gets hungry, it sits still until an insect lands by it. Then it snaps the insect up. A frog often sits upon a log to rest. Then it jumps off for a swim. Frogs jump well, and they swim well. A frog has eggs, as hens do. Frog eggs are not as big as hen eggs.

For more stories, visit www.FreeReading.net